DRIVE BACK ITALIANS AT MANY POINTS; TEUTONS FAIL TO BREAK FRENCH OFFENSIVE.

London, May 24.-The Austrians continue successfully to prosecute their offensive against the Italians in the southern Tyrol. They have advanced on both sides of the Sugana valley, according to the Vienna statement. The Austrian gains and the fact that the Italians have again retired before the onrush of the attacking columns is admitted by Rome. On the Isonzo front Rome reports Bulgarian prisoners have been taken with Austrians, indicating that Bulgaria has joined hands with Austria in the present gigantic offensive. On the western front the Germans have replied to the terrific French offensive in the Douaumont region with assault after assault, and the deadly combat northeast and northwest of | ning. BRIEF SKETCH OF TOM S. ANKENY

The undersigned. Thomas Sherman Ankeny, was born in Wheeling, W. Va., May 12, 1866, and therefore reached the half century of his carthly career last Friday, May 12, 1916. Farty-aeven years of his life have been spent a Canfield, maying been brought here by his parents. April 15, 1868, at the age of nearly three years. A circumstance long to be remembered is, that the journey was made by public conveyance to Lectonia, where the family funds being exhausted the rest of the trip, eleven miles, was made on foot—a long and tiresome walk for a child of three years. He lived with his parents, brothers and sisters for nearly ten years a small house south of the village, and was then driven from home by an irate hard-hearted Puter Familia, and ever since he has had no home only such as he provided for himself. From the age of 18 to nearly 18 he lived in the woods, and slept in hollow logs, and in cold weather used leaves and such rags as he found for covering. Since 1884 he has lived in houses constructed by himself, and at present he occupes a very comfortable residence east of the village, on land of Elmer Lynn who generously permit him to enjoy the same privileges first given him by the late Judson Canfield. In many ways, Tom, as he is familiary called, has been and is a useful person. For about 30 years he helped in feeding the Dispatch newspaper press. He kept the brick pavement on Broad street clean ever since t was constructed, until recently the town conseil employed another man. His services have for many years been in great demand for cleaning wells, cisterns, vaults, and other liks jobs which he does with neatness and dispatch. He solicits a continuance of patronage, in the future, and thanks everybody who employed him in the past. TOM S. ANKENY.
